

Control Center. Automated Connectivity Management Platform.

Cisco Jasper Control Center is the automated connectivity management platform that puts you in control of your IoT business. Grow revenue, lower operational costs, and transform your customer experience.

More than 10,000 companies across every industry rely on Control Center to transform from a product to a service business, and achieve meaningful business results:

- Ensure the highest service reliability at a lower cost
- Streamline operations and eliminate unpredictable spend
- Rapidly scale and generate new revenue streams to drive profitability
- Identify security issues and protect connected devices, customer data, and IT systems

Manage connectivity for all your devices, anywhere in the world.

- Lifecycle Automation.
Powerful automation engine to manage devices by exception
- Analytics & Diagnostics.
Near real-time insights and remote diagnostics for 24/7 reliability
- Comprehensive Security.
Multi-layered security controls and automated protected
- Cost Management.
Near real-time cost monitoring and dynamic controls
- Back-end Integration.
Large API library and technology partners for easy integration

Business

Run reliable, secure connected services at a lower cost.

The Control Center automated connectivity management platform gives you the visibility and control to quickly launch, manage and monetize your IoT services worldwide.

Protect with enterprise-grade security.

Safeguard your business with multi-layered security to protect against unauthorized access to your IoT devices, customer data, and IT systems.

Ensure service reliability.

Deliver the highest reliability with near realtime remote diagnostics and analytics to identify and respond to unusual IoT device behavior before it becomes a problem.

Lower total cost of ownership.

Speed time to market and eliminate unpredictable spend with automated controls and near real-time cost monitoring to lower TCO.

Monetize IoT services.

Use Control Center automation to quickly roll out new services that meet customer needs in compelling ways and drive recurring revenue.

Further information on www.drei.at/iotjasper

Business